

SISTERS
of CHARITY
NEW YORK

SAVE THE DATE

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY OF NEW YORK
& FORDHAM UNIVERSITY OFFICE OF ALUMNI RELATIONS

INVITE YOU TO

John Philip Newell

Speaking on:

NEW HARMONY IN OUR BROKEN WORLD

When Sunday, March 25, 2012

TIME 1–5 PM

PLACE Fordham University, Rose Hill
O’Keefe Commons, O’Hare Hall

Coffee, tea and cookies will be provided

Handicapped accessible (barrier free)

Parking on Campus

Free Will Offering

Limited Seating – Register by Monday, March 12

with Adelaide at asharris@scny.org

For more information call: 718-549-9200

John Philip Newell is a poet, scholar, and teacher, internationally acclaimed for his work in Celtic Spirituality. Canadian by birth, he now lives in Scotland.

In an increasingly fragmented world, Newell calls us to a vision of life’s essential oneness, inviting us to be part of a “new harmony.” He points the way to a Christianity more integrated with the earth and with the rest of humanity —articulating a pathway toward transformation in our lives and world.

His writings include: A New Harmony: the Spirit, the Earth, and the Human Soul;

*Listening for the Heartbeat of God:
a Celtic Spirituality;*

Praying with the Earth